

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bagdad.

Farmers are quite busy this week.

Mr. Louis Crim has recovered, after several weeks sickness, and is now visiting friends in Lexington.

Miss Mattie Magruder has returned home, after spending several days with friends in Carroll county.

Mr. Quin Vardiman departed this life April 2d. He was a citizen of Consolation, and a prominent member of Indian Fork Church. His presence will be greatly missed. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

I went to Beach Ridge Church on the 4th Sunday in March, and saw Zeke Yocum. He says he was so disturbed by some peach orchard shoats that he could not hear the preaching. I think Zeke was mistaken. He did not stay still services were over. I think he ought to think of the preacher the next time, and wait till services are over before he goes home. He is setting a bad example for the shoats; for where the old shoats go the young ones are likely to follow.

Among the Colored Citizens.

BY G. H. B.

Alice Brown, aged thirteen years, died April 1st.

Miss Lucy Metcalfe, residing in South Frankfort, is very sick.

Died.—Infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Clay, on March 31st, aged two years.

The Ladies' Exchange will meet at Mrs. Burk's to-night. Come and help the ladies.

Mrs. Nancy Washington, grandmother of Rev. G. H. Burks, is very sick at her daughter's, Mrs. Ellen Johnson's.

Married.—Mr. James Johnson, the barber, and Mrs. Mary Davis, of Covington, Ky., on April 1st, by Rev. G. H. Burks.

We hear of some grumbling on account of Elder Evans' letter in last week's ROUNDABOUT. G. H. B. wishes to say to the readers of the ROUNDABOUT, not the readers either, but to those who charged him with writing that letter, that no one, after reading said letter, would do such a thing or make such a charge but a non compos mentis person. We are sure of one thing, that they are non est inventus, unless it be in some bar-room. What G. H. B. wants to say he can say without signing Elder Evan's or any one else's name to it. Take care, be ye sure your sins will find you out. Repent.

We are glad to say that the people, or those who we have seen join the church, have accepted Christ according to the Bible, or the way that Christ and his apostles taught, and not by what they dream, or what Aunt Julia or Uncle Billy said, but what Christ said. And we hope and trust to the Lord that they will make better members of the churches than a great many others we know, who can't or will not talk to you without putting their hands over their mouth or else turn their heads away from you, just because their breath don't smell like white rose cologne. Everything seems quiet in our diocese.

The revival is still going on at the Methodist and Baptist Churches, and many are still confessing a hope in Christ. R. G. Montague, the Evangelist of the Kentucky Annual Conference of the A. M. E. Church, is helping Rev. G. H. Burks. Rev. Montague is one of the sweet singers of Israel. Rev. Dorch, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is helping Rev.

Evans. Rev. H. H. White, of Chicago, is preaching for Rev. R. H. C. Mitchell this week. Rev. J. Fisher, who has been helping or carrying on the meeting for Rev. E. Evans, left Thursday for his home at Bowling Green, Ky. He received $61 and a number of presents for his labors. The First Baptist Church has received about 115 new members during their meeting, and the Methodists have received 112 members during their meeting.

A Suggestion to the Traveling Public.
Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unwholesome influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects of vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water, or other conditions unfavorable to health. On long voyages, or journeys in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of indigestion, biliousness, and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to attack natives of the temperate zones on their arrival in such regions, and it is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme fatigue. It not only prevents intermittent and remittent fever, and other diseases of a malarial type, but eradicates them, a fact which has been notorious for years past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia, and other countries.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at Jos. LeCompte's Drug Store. Large Bottles $1.

Notice of Incorporation.

BE it known that on the 2d day of April, 1887, persons lawfully appearing before the Clerk of the Circuit Court, the following named persons: John B. Meek, R. E. Gaines, U. V. Williams, Wm. Cromwell, George A. Lewis, W. L. Tanner, L. H. Finnell and U. Keenon, who signed and acknowledged articles of incorporation under the provisions of chapter 35, General Statutes, to be known by the name and style of the "Frankfort Natural Gas and Oil Company," and said articles of incorporation were then filed for record. The persons above named are the incorporators of said company and shall constitute its first board of directors. The principal place of transacting the business of said corporation shall be in Frankfort, Kentucky, and said corporation shall commence on the 2d day of April, 1887, and terminate twenty-five years thereafter.

Said company shall have perpetual succession and the power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, to take, hold, own and in anywise alien property, real, personal and mixed, to have a common seal, and after the same at pleasure, and to establish by-laws and make rules and regulations for the management of the affairs of said company not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of this State or of the United States.

The general nature of the business of said corporation shall be to develop, produce, utilize, convey and sell, or in anywise dispose of petroleum, natural gas and salt water, or any of them which may be upon or come from any of the lands which said company may own, lease or control, or upon which for any of such purposes it may have or acquire the right, and to these ends the company is empowered to drill, bore or in anywise sink and maintain wells for the purpose of producing petroleum, natural gas and salt water or either, and construct, lay, maintain and operate derrick, buildings, machinery, tanks, pipes, receivers, gasometers, warehouses, manufactories, and any other improvements or appliances in or by means of which such petroleum, gas and salt water or either may be produced, distributed, sold or utilized; and for this purpose may construct, lay and operate conduit pipes of any kind, and any other means to or from any of said lands or other places, and may acquire by lease or otherwise lands situated in any portion of Franklin county suitable for such uses and purposes. Said corporation shall have the right to convey natural gas from without into the city of Frankfort or within said city, and there distribute or sell the same or both, subject to any reasonable regulations for the convenience and safety of the inhabitants of said city as said city may, in the exercise of its governmental powers, deem proper to impose. Said corporation, before opening the ground in any street, alley, park or other public place in Frankfort for laying, removing or repairing any of its pipes or necessary appliances, shall obtain the consent of the council of said city therefor, provided all natural gas shall be conveyed, distributed, sold and used within the city of Frankfort for fuel and heating purposes only, but may be used outside the limits of said city for any purposes.

The affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors of not less than four nor more than nine members, and may be prescribed by the by-laws, who shall be elected by the stockholders for a term of one year and until their successors are elected. Said directors shall elect from their number a President and Vice-President, also a Secretary and Treasurer, the same person may be both secretary and treasurer, and may or may not be a member of the board of directors.

The regular election for directors and other officers of said corporation shall be held on the first Monday in January of each succeeding year. The board of directors at their first meeting shall elect all officers to serve until the regular election. The first meeting of said board shall be held on the written call of not less than one-half of the directors. Five days' previous notice of a meeting of stockholders shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the city of Frankfort, and each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote, to be cast in person or by written proxy. The capital stock of said company shall be ten thousand dollars, divided into shares of ten dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property and subscribed for and paid in at the times and upon the terms, and transferable in the manner to be prescribed in the by-laws of said company. The stockholders may, by a two-thirds vote, at a meeting called for that purpose, increase said stock to not exceeding fifty thousand dollars. The indebtedness of said company shall at no time exceed two-thirds of its capital stock. Private property of the incorporators and stockholders of said company shall be exempt from its corporate debts and liabilities.

Given under our hands this 2d day of April, 1887.
